TURNING GRAY

AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using

AYER'S

Hair Vigor.

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation."

Many of the farmers in Otter Tail county will receive no benefit from the Ferris grass seed law, owing to the negligence of the county auditor who failed to attend to the filling out of the proper blanks.

The Duluth people have not got cooled off since their failure to secure the normal school appropriation of the late legislature. But then, Senator Spencer hasn't organized his new state yet, and probably will not.

The disposition among farmers in Minnesota is to go more extensively into the raising of potatoes. The Crow Wing county farmers are among the number. A large acreage will be planted this year from the fact that experience has taught the tillers of the soil that there is good profit in potato raising.

A NEWSPAPER in Minnesota must be published in the English language in order to be eligible to publish the laws or any kind of a legal notice. The law is a just one, although there were arguments presented by able men in the legislature against its enactment. These men squared themselves with their foreign constituents and it was all they hoped to do.

THE ST. CLOUD Journal Press, in a sarcastic manner, speaks of the appointment of J. N. Jones as factory inspector, because he voted for Knute Nelson for United States senator, and adds "if this thing keeps on the public will get some interesting information about the late senatorial election." Bro. Eastman evidently forgets the "fat" job he secured after the Washburn election some years ago.

THERE are several gentlemen who already have their political eye focused on the governor's chair and have had for two months. It may be that the early bird catches the worm but in this case it does look as though there was entirely too much previousness about the matter. The spring of '96 will be early enough for the gentlemen to announce their willingness to lead the party to victory.

ATKIN county is somewhat agitated over the matter of building a bridge across the Mississippi at that point, the county having maintained a ferry for a time until some of the tax payers kicked and the commissioners found they were not warranted in making the expense. The people in the southern part of the county want good roads and in order to satisfy them the bridge question they propose to issue bonds to the amount of $16,000, and use half of it for a bridge and the other half for improving the roads leading to it.

The meeting of the Republican National League will be held at Cleveland on June 19th and will be in session three days. Minnesota is entitled to 38 delegates, six at large and four from each congressional district besides the officers of the state league. The Minnesota delegates will be selected next week at Minneapolis and those who are selected and attend will have a very enjoyable time as an excursion to Niagara Falls, Put-in-Bay, Chautauque and other points of interest will be indulged in. The session itself will be one of importance as vital political questions will come up for discussion.

The fourth decennial census of the state of Minnesota will be taken the coming month according to a law passed by the last legislature, the time given for the same being June 1 to June 30. The secretary of state has charge of the census bureau at St. Paul and enumerators will be appointed for this county during the coming week. The compensation for enumerators is two cents for each living individual where the superintendent of census deems that allowance sufficient according to the law, and for sparsely settled regions not more than $3 nor less than $2 per day but in no case to exceed three cents per individual enumerated.

The Brainerd Dispatch says that this paper "has not advanced one new original idea" on the silver question. The Journal does not claim to have advanced any new and previously unthought of ideas on the subject. We leave that for the Dispatch to do, and it never fails to do it when it expresses any definite idea at all. For instance in its issue of April 19 it said that free coinage meant to "compel the government to pay a dollar for forty-seven cents' worth of silver." Now there is an original idea, one that we believe never did, and probably never will, appear in any other newspaper between the two oceans. Free coinage does not mean that the government should pay any sum whatever for anybody's silver.—Journal.

No, but it does mean that the government should take forty-seven cents worth of silver, at the present price, and stamp it one dollar, and then under the law that compels the secretary of the treasury to issue bonds to maintain the parity of all our circulating medium, the government is required to redeem that dollar containing forty-seven cents worth of silver with one containing 100 cents worth of gold. Isn't that equivalent to paying a dollar for forty-seven cents worth of silver? Any blockhead can see that it is, but the Journal editor knows it, but his selfish interests have so blinded him that he is willing to advocate this species of dishonesty in order to further his private interests. However, the idea is not original with us, and notwithstanding the assertions of the Journal, has appeared time and again in every newspaper on the continent that has not adopted the false and exploded theories of the populists or has not selfish interests to serve.

False Arguments.

The Journal has suddenly become a great exponent of the free coinage of silver, owing to its editor's ownership of several shares of stock in a Montana silver mine, and with its usual ardor after having made a flop on any question, its columns team with alleged arguments for its new law. It attempts to show that reductions in the prices of a great many commodities is due to the fall in the price of silver. Now, as a matter of fact, the decline in the price of silver has had nothing, whatever, to do with the rise or fall in the price of any other commodity, as can be easily shown. Take, for example, wheat. Silver was demonetized in 1873, previous to which time we had free coinage. Statistics show that during 18 years preceding 1873, the average price of wheat was not as great as the 18 years succeeding. The price fell 27c in the year 1879 without any corresponding decline in silver or so-called appreciation of gold. The price advanced 12 cents from 1873 to 1874, and was higher in 1878 than in 1873, so that if "demonetization of silver" is responsible for the general decline, it is rather strange that its immediate effect was a rise of 12c per bushel, and it was not until the mints were re-opened to silver in 1878 that the decline set in, and although the price declined from $1.33 in 1873, to $1.03 in 1892, fluctuating as shown above, the reduction in the cost of producing would account for a greater change. Since 1873, machinery has been invented which has greatly reduced the cost of production of wheat, and the sources from which comes the greater part of the wheat crop of the United States have been opened up by railways and waterways, thus reducing the cost of distribution and transportation. But the competition of India, Russia and the Argentine in the wheat markets of the world has also had a great influence on the price. In January, 1873, the export duty on wheat from India was removed, and the exports from that country, which that year were 394,000 cwt, have steadily increased, until in 1892 they reached a total of 30,306,700 cwt. And as to the price of silver, it is admitted on all sides that never in the history of the country, not even in war times, was labor so well paid as in 1892, when the uncertainty caused by Democratic success produced a lack of confidence causing commercial disaster, that reduced wages at least 25 per cent. Previous to that time the Journal insisted with greater emphasis that the low price of wheat, which was then 95 cents, was due to the Republican policy of protection, and now that the incompetency of Democracy has reduced prices generally, labor as well as everything else, it attempts to hoodwink the people by claiming it is because we have not free coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1. It is simply absurd.

That 9 O'clock Ordinance.

A good deal of fun is being poked at the towns of Minnesota that have adopted a regulation forbidding children under a certain age to appear upon the streets after 9 o'clock at night unless accompanied by some responsible grown person, says the Pioneer Press, and adds: Such ordinances are dubbed "curfew," and the assumption is that Young America is particularly able to take care of itself, without the fostering assistance of a local authority. But the truth is that such a rule is both wise and necessary, and that the communities which will adopt and enforce it are contributing to a most salutary reform. Such a regulation, with authority and determination behind it, if it became general, would diminish the population of our prisons and reform schools within a few years probably as much as all the agencies now working together to exterminate the disease known as crime.

From the wayward boy to the young tough and the middle-aged convict is an easy and natural transition. The relaxation of home discipline is one of the most fruitful causes of social decay. It is easier to let a boy run the streets than it is to look after him in the home. But from the moment that the freedom of the streets belongs to him, he is plunged into associations that are always more or less degrading. This is less true in small than in large cities, but it is a universal rule. And it is unappreciated to predict the future of the boys and girls who run at large after nightfall. There can be no possible reason for a child of tender years to be abroad after 9 o'clock just when he will see, what he will hear, what forbidden attractions will slowly unfold their evil meaning to his unformed mind, what temptations will surely lure him to ruin. Out of the streets march the armies of degradation and punishment. Up from the streets follows the ghastly band that steps under the shadow of the gallows. Learned in the lore of the streets are the girls whose womanhood is quickly crushed out of them. The street of the modern city is the horrible Moloch to whom the children are sacrificed. If the state cannot enforce the actual discharge of parental duty, if it cannot make fathers and mothers perform the obligation which they have taken upon themselves, let it at least forbid them to leave their children to the education of the thoroughfare and all forms of vice jostle each other amidst the evening shadows. The modern curfew regulation is a good one. To spread it and enforce it is to help on the work of moral regeneration.

Maps.

If we allow plans and charts of small areas to come under the head of maps, then great antiquity must be granted them, for the Egyptian kings have left among their inscription rude diagrams of the countries they conquered. It was not, however, until the acceptance of the idea that the earth is a globe, and the consequent invention of latitude and longitude, that maps showing the proper proportions of the various natural and political divisions of the divisions of the world were made. Even in the sixteenth century a map was published which showed Asia and America as joined on the 38th parallel, or San Francisco and Peking as united by land and only about 300 miles apart. In the year 1700 the first approximately correct map of the world was published. Now, to such a pitch of accuracy has topographical engineering arrived, and so thoroughly has the face of the globe been explored, that the maps and atlases issued are marvels of accuracy, and as indispensable in a library as a dictionary. One of the best maps of our own country is issued by the Burlington Route, mounted on rollers and ready to hang on the wall. Fifteen cents in stamps sent to W. J. C. Keyton, Gen. Pass. Agt., St. Paul, Minn., will secure one by return mail, and also information as to what is the best line from the Northwest to all principal points East, South, or Southwest.

From the Lumberman.

The mill of the Brainerd Lumber company is about ready for work and will begin sawing not later than the first of May. The mill is equipped with two bands and gears and the company has been striving hard to make it the best mill on the river. It is thoroughly modern in all its appointments and fitted out with the best of everything in the way of machinery.

The Pine Tree Lumber company, of Little Falls, is now running both of its mills with full crews, but if it does not rain in a few days they will have to shut down. They had intended to have both mills running night and day by this time. Logs are being sluiced over the Brainerd dam and the river is so low between that and Little Falls that the logs cannot reach the latter place.

The Boom company has started sluicing logs over the Brainerd dam and operations have been conducted under favorable circumstances thus far. After coming over the dam the logs will float down the river with an occasional push as far as Crow Wing. Along with the logs from the Brainerd to Minneapolis the company is hauling the dead-ends out into the sun to dry, and many thousands of feet of timber are thus reclaimed to be sawed into lumber.

J. E. Glass, of the Gulf River Lumber company, has returned from a week from a ten days' visit at his old home at Shelbyville, Ky. When Mr. Glass left Minneapolis he informed his office force that he would be gone just seven days. Soon after he returned to the blue grass region he heard back home that he guessed he would stay a few days longer. The effect that the exhilarating climate of old Kentucky has on western people is remarkable. Mr. Glass, who is the son of his childhood and found his pleasure and paid no attention to business, Mr. Glass stated that he is not able to make a comparison of business conditions, but he enjoyed himself just the same.

On Saturday last the Minnesota Logging company held its regular annual meeting in the offices of the company in the Lumber Exchange. About the only business of interest that was transacted was the election of officers. But one change was made, that being in the office of vice-president, to which J. E. Carpenter, of Clinton, was elected. During the year this office was held by E. W. Backus. The other officers of the company are E. P. Welles, president; H. E. Carpenter, treasurer; W. Backus, secretary; and J. E. Carpenter, besides being vice president, will act as the general manager of the company. During the first year of its existence the company has accomplished more than any similar company ever did in so short a time. It has built an entire railroad through some of the finest timber lands in Minnesota, and cut and logged in the neighborhood of one hundred and twenty-five million feet. A large part of this cut has been brought in to Brainerd and dumped into the Mississippi at that point, the rest has been skidded or barked in convenient places where it can be hauled by the road during the summer. The company has enough logs to keep the road busy until the first of September. For some time past the road has not been hauling logs, but has had the road ready for the summer's work. Log trains are again running.

In Memoriam.

At a special meeting of St. Francis Branch No. 1, C. M. B. A., held in their hall Monday night, April 29th, 1895, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Death has once more visited our Branch and selected as its victim our respected and beloved brother, LIONEL HINKLE, one who at all times had the cause of our noble order at heart, and who by his advice and example was one of the foremost in its charitable work; a good citizen, a true Christian, a kind and loving husband and father; therefore be it

Resolved, with bowing with humble submission to the Divine will of God Who does all things well, we hope that what is our temporal loss is our departed brother's eternal gain, and trust that he has received the reward for which he so ardently labored.

Resolved, we extend to his sorrowing family our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of so devoted and loving husband and father, and beseech God Who comforts the widow and fatherless to console them in their bereavement.

Resolved, that out of respect to his memory our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days and these resolutions be printed in the city papers; also recorded on the minutes of the Branch and a copy sent to the family of our deceased brother.

HE COMMANDED THE EMPRESS.

Worth's Word Regarding Her Costume.

Worth was admitted to the Tuileries whenever he had something fresh to show her majesty. He would arrive there early in the morning and lay out the new toilets and stuffs he brought with him in a small room near her bedchamber. He would then withdraw, leaving his assistant behind him to give all the explanations that might be demanded. On other occasions the empress, who possessed a great deal of taste, would send for him to discuss the various fashions which he had laid before her. But he would rarely change his mind, and it was almost impossible to obtain from him the slightest modification in his dress.

As a rule, it was the sovereign who had to submit to the will of the man dressmaker. When the trying on came, he was ushered into the presence of her majesty as soon as she had put on the dress. At a glance he detected the slightest imperfection and instructed his assistant how to remedy it. He would never allow the empress to wear a costume the effect of which was not what he expected.

A curious anecdote on this point is related by The Gaulois. The Comtesse de Montijo, mother of the empress, was always a strict observer of court ceremony, and in her opinion, which was not without weight, the effect of which was not what he expected.

Resolved, with bowing with humble submission to the Divine will of God Who does all things well, we hope that what is our temporal loss is our departed brother's eternal gain, and trust that he has received the reward for which he so ardently labored.

Resolved, we extend to his sorrowing family our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of so devoted and loving husband and father, and beseech God Who comforts the widow and fatherless to console them in their bereavement.

of 100,000 silver dollars from the sil-

Ramsey county proposes to put a quarter of a million dollars of her money into the new capitol enterprise.

Suppose the next legislature would refuse to pay it back, what then.

Pike county received $4,615 for grass seed purposes under the Ferris bill. The people of that county described the bulk of the appropriation and are grateful for the aid which the bill provided.

MANY of the farmers in Otter Tail county will receive no benefit from the Ferris grass seed law, owing to the negligence of the county auditor who failed to attend to the filling out of the proper blanks.

The Duluth people have not got cooled off since their failure to secure the normal school appropriation of the late legislature. But then, Senator Spencer hasn't organized his new state yet, and probably will not.

The disposition among farmers in Minnesota is to go more extensively into the raising of potatoes and the Crow Wing county farmers are among the number. A large acreage will be planted this year from the fact that experience has taught the tillers of the soil that there is good profit in potato raising.

A NEWSPAPER in Minnesota must be published in the English language in order to be eligible to publish the laws or any kind of a legal notice.

The law is a just one, although there were arguments presented by able men in the legislature against its enactment. These men squared themselves with their foreign constituents and it was all they hoped to do.

The St. Cloud Journal Press, in a sarcastic manner, speaks of the appointment of J. N. Jones as factory inspector, because he voted for Knute

Nelson for United States senator, and said "if this thing keeps on the public will get some interesting information about the late senatorial election." Bro. Eastman evidently forgets the "fat" pig he secured after the Washington election some years ago.

THERE are several gentlemen who already have their political eye focused on the governor's chair and that the early bird catches the worm

but in this case it does look as though there were entirely too much previous experience about the matter. The spring of '96 will be early enough for the gentlemen to announce their willingness to lead the party to victory.

ATKIN county is somewhat agitated over the matter of building a bridge across the Mississippi at that point, the county having maintained a ferry for a time until some of the tax payers and the commissioners found they were not warranted in making the expense. The people in the southern part of the county want good roads and in order to satisfy them on the bridge question they propose to issue bonds to the amount of $16,000 and use half of it for a bridge and the other half for improving the roads leading to it.

The meeting of the Republican National League will be held at Cleveland on June 19th and will be in session three days. Minnesota is en-itled to 35 delegates, six at large and four from each congressional district

besides the officers of the state league.

The Minnesota delegates will be selected next week at Minneapolis and those who are selected and attend will have a very enjoyable time on an excursion to Niagara Falls, Putin-Bay, Chautauque and other points of interest will be indulged in. The session itself will be of no importance as vital political questions will come up for discussion.

The fourth decennial census of the state of Minnesota will be taken the coming month according to a law passed by the last legislature, the law given for the same being June 1 to June 30. The secretary of state has charge of the census bureau at St.

Paul and enumerators will be appointed for this county during the coming week. The compensation for enumerators is two cents for each living individual where the superintendent of census deems that allowance sufficient according to the law, and for expressly settled regions not more than $3 nor less than $2 per day but in no case to exceed three cents per individual enumerated.

The Duluth passenger train on Monday morning killed four horses a short distance east of the shops. Two of the animals belonged to Jas. Cullen and two to James Parker, of East Brainerd. It is thought that the horses got through the shop yard gate onto the right of way.

The Aitkin Republican says that the business of F. P. McQuiggin, our popular railroad land agent, has increased lately to such an extent that he has found it necessary to procure the services of an amanuensis, and few days ago engaged Miss Lulu Benson, of Brainerd, to act in that capacity.

The gentlemen of the party were here for the purpose of making the effort to organize a lodge of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, but they found it an inopportune time and deferred the matter.—Aitkin Republican.
The time for holding court in this, the Fifteenth Judicial district, has been regulated by legislative enactment as follows: Crow Wing county, third Tuesday in March and first Tuesday in September; Itasca county, first Tuesday in January and June; Hubbard county, first Tuesday in July; Aitkin county, first Tuesday in October; Wadena county, first Tuesday in December.
David Deloney should enter some athletic aggregation, as his antics on Saturday afternoon would recommend him to the position of head jumper and sprinter. Deloney became mixed up in a fight in a Fifth street restaurant, was later arrested for assault and brought before the municipal judge. While waiting for his examination he retired to the rear of the court room for a drink, and before Chief Barron could stop him he jumped out of the second story window and started for the river, which he reached and crossed on the logs, and has not been seen since. If he never comes back the city will be rid of a troublesome character to the police.
Rube Allyn, the celebrated humorist and impersonator, will visit this city Tuesday evening, May 7th, under the auspices of the Senior Class of our High School. The class take this means of securing the necessary funds for graduation. The high class of the entertainment alone should warrant a large attendance, but since it comes under the auspices of the class the house should be crowded to the doors, as it undoubtedly will. Mr. Allyn needs no introduction to the public, as he is recognized as the peer of humorists and the most skillful impersonators. In the afternoon, in order to give all the children a chance to hear him, a matinee will be given, to which the small admission of 10 cents will be charged. Admission to the evening entertainment will be 35 cents, and tickets to be exchanged for coupon tickets at McFadden's drug store.

Dr. C. E. Lum and wife arrived in Wadena Tuesday evening, after their long absence in the east and in Europe. During this time they have visited many of the leading cities in England and on the continent, and had a delightful trip for the most part. The Doctor studied at Berlin, Vienna and London, under celebrated specialists. They will remain in Wadena a short time, and it is Dr. Lum's intention to settle in Duluth.—Wadena Journal.

Speaking of the situation among the mills at Minneapolis, the Journal, of that city says: The government reservoir at Pokegama does not contain nearly as much water as is needed, although there is a considerable supply there. The reservoir is being tapped today as an experiment in the effect on log driving, but it will be 10 days before the flush, what there is of it, will reach Minneapolis. Even with copious showers, the prospect is rather poor for any saving in Minneapolis before June 1.

Opera House, May 10th.
W. A. Mahara's Mammoth Colored Operatic Minstrel, appeared at the Tremont yesterday, opening with a matinee and giving a farewell performance at night. This is a troupe of colored performers, and they gave a very original and interesting entertainment, and adhere more closely to the old-time style of minstrelsy, with pure and unadulterated negro originalities, than any other company appearing here this season. Their songs and jokes and specialty features are all good.—Grand Forks (N. D.) News.
Joined for Life.
Mr. Harry Pegg and Miss Julia Vigor were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents in this city on Monday evening, May 22nd, the Rev. D. D. McFarquhar officiating. The bride and groom are well known to our Brainerd people. The wedding was witnessed by a large number of invited guests who participated in the wedding feast which followed the ceremony, and assisted in making the occasion a very pleasant one. Mr. and Mrs. Pegg left for West Superior, which will be their future home, on the early train Tuesday morning, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.
Found His Body in a Lake.
The body of Jacob Hamerle, a lumberman, was found in Wabedah lake on Tuesday by Frank Raynor, a cook in a lumber camp at that place. Hamerle disappeared from the camp early in November last, but as lumbermen come and go from the camps without warning, nothing was thought of his disappearance. Mr. Raynor went to the lake on Tuesday to dip up some water and discovered the body in a few feet of water. It is not known whether the case was one of suicide or accidental death. The remains were buried near the lake without an inquest, as nothing was found on his person which would indicate where his home or relatives were.
The Arlington Hotel Fire.
The Arlington hotel was the scene of quite a blaze on Wednesday morning, the alarm being given at 7 o'clock. The fire department was promptly on hand and saved the building from destruction, but not until somewhere in the neighborhood of $400 damage had been done, the water causing as much destruction as the fire. The origin of the blaze is a mystery as it started in a room on the third floor which was occupied by two of the dining room girls who had left the room at six o'clock, and at that time there was no signs of any fire which an hour later caused such a commotion. The fire seems to have started between the plastering and floor and burned up through the floor igniting the bedding and destroying everything in the room including the entire outfit of clothing belonging to the occupants of the room, the latter being a serious loss to the young ladies, amounting to $200.
Opening of the Kindergarten.
Miss Lucy Sterns will open a kindergarten school at the Guild rooms on Monday morning, May 6th, and will be assisted in the work by Mrs. J. C. Atherton. Miss Sterns has just returned from Minneapolis where she has been fitting herself for the work for some months past and has undergone a thorough training in all the branches, having also the advantage of practice as she was actively engaged in teaching while there. The age of pupils who will be received at the kindergarten to be opened next Monday will be from 3 to 7 years and the tuition fee will be $1.00 per week, except where there are two pupils from the same family in which case the price will be 75 cents. The hours will be from 9 to 12 o'clock each day except Saturdays and in cases where the children live too far from the school a conveyance will be furnished.

Our Gun Club.
The first shoot enjoyed by the Brainerd Gun Club occurred on Wednesday forenoon at the new grounds at the end of the street car line. The club has been thoroughly reorganized and during the coming summer will be active in their operations. The new location is a very desirable one in many respects. The traps will be worked with electricity, which will be transmitted from the electric plant of the street car line, and the entire arrangement will be superior to that of any other club in the Northwest. A meeting will be held this (Friday) evening, at which time the entire details of the summer's shoot will be arranged. It is also expected that a tournament will be held the latter part of June. The membership of the Club at the present time is as follows: U. White, P. S. Parker, Dr. S. M. Kirkwood, A. F. Ferris, Geo. D. LaBar, L. W. Chase, John T. Frater, W. J. Bain, Dr. J. L. Camp, J. R. Westfall, G. M. Walker, A. E. Von, Dr. W. Courtney, Louis Tache, M. S. Swartz, J. H. Smith, S. H. Parker, G. S. McLane, Dan McIntosh, N. McFadden, W. S. McClenahan, Jas. McCabe, W. H. Mantor, J. H. Koop, A. L. Hoffman, G. A. Kroen, J. M. Hayes, N. H. Ingervall, J. J. Howe Jr., Dr. A. F. Groves, J. F. Frost, J. F. Glosterman, W. P. Buckley and John Bubar.

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report
The grass seed to be furnished by the state will be ready for delivery to the applicants the first of next week, probably as early as Monday. The commissioners let the contract to M. Hagberg, and will be disbursed from his store on Sixth street on orders issued to the proper parties by Auditor Tache. Farmers are notified to bring sacks, for in case sacks have to be furnished the parties will have to pay for the same. There are 222 applicants to whom seed has been granted, 98 in Cass, and 124 in Crow Wing county. What seemed to be a calamity, and what was really so, will eventually be a benefit to those who lost only their hay land, for the proper use of the seed furnished by the state will bring forth a quality of tame hay next year which will be superior to any wild grass originally grown on these meadows.

Gave Him a Chair.
John Bubar was agreeably surprised on Tuesday evening of this week by a party of friends at the Lumberman's Exchange Hotel, it being his last day as proprietor of the same. The committee, consisting of J. P. Saunders and D. F. McIntosh, presented Mr. Bubar with a very fine easy rocking chair as a token of remembrance, a testimonial accompanying it as follows:
To JOHN BUBAR, Esq.:
In recognition of your genial company, pleasant manners, good fellowship and past favors, please accept this slight token as a remembrance from your friends: J. P. Saunders, Dan McIntosh, Chas. Kinkade, James Dewar, John Carlson, Fred Ellison, G. P. McLean, A. L. Robbins, Wm. Copeland, F. Miller, F. Wilkins, J. Kelleher, F. Stropp, A. Rheinthal, E. J. Morrison, J. Buley, Pat Connors, Ed. Britton, A. Rosenberg, G. Sargent, Harry Marx, Ed. Chamberlain, D. Dolan.

Meeting of the Board of Trade.
On Friday evening last a special meeting of the Board of Trade was held at the city hall, the attendance being unusually large. Considerable business was transacted, among which was the revising of the by-laws, and a committee was appointed, consisting of W. S. McClenahan and President Parker, to attend to having them printed in pamphlet form.
The most important business of the evening was the consideration of the passenger train service which is accorded Brainerd at present, and a committee, consisting of Hon. A. F. Ferris, Hon. H. C. Stivers and Judge G. W. Holland, were appointed to confer with the company, and endeavor to secure the running of passenger trains No. 7 and 8 this way, instead of over the cut-off.
Other committees appointed were: To examine the books and accounts of the board—Geo. D. LaBar and W. D. McKay.
On manufactures and commerce—Leon E. Lum, J. W. Koop, M. Hagberg, J. N. Novers and A. P. Farrar.
Several communications were read, after which the board adjourned.

Memorial Day.
30, G. A. R.
Comrades of the G. A. R., ladies of the W. R. C., Sons of Veterans and all honorably discharged Union soldiers and sailors who served in the late war, are requested to take part with the Post on Memorial Day, May 30, 1895. Twenty-seven years ago the beautiful and impressive custom of strewing flowers on the last resting place of the fallen comrades was first publicly observed, and each year since has witnessed a more general observance of the day. Memorial Day is now indeed a time when the grateful people of a great nation vie with each other in honoring the memory of its soldier and sailor dead, who died that the nation might live, showing to the survivors of the great struggle that our republic is grateful and does honor to the men who dared death in its defense, and whose deeds shall be told in song and story to the rising generation, that they, too, may learn to love our country and its flag, learn that we have the best and most liberal form of government on the face of the earth to-day, learn that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, learn that the constitution guarantees to all its citizens free speech, free thought, political and religious, learn that the safety of the nation lies in having every citizen protected in his rights, learn that education and patriotism go hand in hand, that we are one nation, and that our motto is "One Country and One Flag," and that flag "Old Glory," the stars and stripes, the flag which on this Memorial Day waves over every Union soldier's and sailor's grave in this broad land.
Now, comrades, let us all enter earnestly into this patriotic work! Fall in with our Post with all its efforts to observe the day with flowers and tears for the dead, and cheers and smiles for the living, for since last Memorial Day a full division of the G. A. R. has been mustered out by death. Let us close our ranks and stand shoulder to shoulder as we journey down the western slope of time. A detail will be made from the Post in due time to co-operate with the schools, civic and other societies and patriotic citizens.

ABSOLUTELY PURE
Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report
The grass seed to be furnished by the state will be ready for delivery to the applicants the first of next week, probably as early as Monday. The commissioners let the contract to M. Hagberg, and will be disbursed from his store on Sixth street on orders issued to the proper parties by Auditor Tache. Farmers are notified to bring sacks, for in case sacks have to be furnished the parties will have to pay for the same. There are 222 applicants to whom seed has been granted, 98 in Cass, and 124 in Crow Wing county. What seemed to be a calamity, and what was really so, will eventually be a benefit to those who lost only their hay land, for the proper use of the seed furnished by the state will bring forth a quality of tame hay next year which will be superior to any wild grass originally grown on these meadows.

Meeting of the Board of Trade.
On Friday evening last a special meeting of the Board of Trade was held at the city hall, the attendance being unusually large. Considerable business was transacted, among which was the revising of the by-laws, and a committee was appointed, consisting of W. S. McClenahan and President Parker, to attend to having them printed in pamphlet form.
The most important business of the evening was the consideration of the passenger train service which is accorded Brainerd at present, and a committee, consisting of Hon. A. F. Ferris, Hon. H. C. Stivers and Judge G. W. Holland, were appointed to confer with the company, and endeavor to secure the running of passenger trains No. 7 and 8 this way, instead of over the cut-off.
Other committees appointed were: To examine the books and accounts of the board—Geo. D. LaBar and W. D. McKay.
On manufactures and commerce—Leon E. Lum, J. W. Koop, M. Hagberg, J. N. Novers and A. P. Farrar.
Several communications were read, after which the board adjourned.

The Duluth passenger train on Monday morning killed four horses a short distance east of the shops. Two of the animals belonged to Jas. Cullen and two to James Parker, of East Brainerd. It is thought that the horses got through the shop yard gate onto the right of way.
Country people who love to see Uncle Tom's Cabin can see more real life with W. A. Mahara's Mammoth Colored Operatic Minstrels than they could in 100 Uncle Tom Cots. This excellent company will appear at the Sleeper opera house on Friday evening, May 10th.
The Atkin Republican says that the business of F. P. McQuillin, our popular railroad land agent, has increased lately to such an extent that he has found it necessary to procure the services of an amanuensis, and few days ago engaged Miss Lulu Benson, of Brainerd, to act in that capacity.

The members of Brainerd Lodge No. 47, A. O. U. W. will give a musical and literary entertainment on the evening of May 10th, at Gardner Hall. The Grand Master Workman, of St. Paul, will be present and open the exercises with an address. The best local talent of the city will assist in the entertainment.
Miss Alice Fitch, formerly of this city, and who is now completing a thorough course of kindergarten in Minneapolis, we hear will shortly return to Brainerd for the purpose of opening a kindergarten, and will undoubtedly meet with success, as Miss Fitch has many friends here who will be glad to see her in this work.
The ladies of the Episcopal church will give a tea in the Guild rooms on Tuesday, May 14th, and at the same time hold a sale of useful and ornamental articles. Tea will be 25 cents. All are cordially invited. It is requested that ladies who are making articles for sale hand them to Mrs. Metcalf no later than Friday, May 10.

Dr. Werner Homstead, accompanied by his wife, James Cullen, J. F. McGinnis and W. H. Meekins, all from Brainerd, were guests of the Foley on Sunday last. The gentlemen of the party were here for the purpose of making the effort to organize a lodge of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, but they found it an inopportune time and deferred the matter. Atkin Republican.

The time for holding court in this, the Fifteenth Judicial district, has been regulated by legislative enactment as follows: Crow Wing county, third Tuesday in March and first Tuesday in September; Itasca county, first Tuesdays in January and June; Hubbard county, first Tuesday in July; Atkin county, first Tuesday in October; Wadena county, first Tuesday in December.
David Deloney should enter some athletic aggregation, as his antics on Saturday afternoon would recommend him to the position of head jumper and sprinter. Deloney became mixed up in a fight in a Fifth street restaurant, was later arrested for assault and brought before the municipal judge. While waiting for his examination he retired to the rear of the court room for a drink, and before Chief Barron could stop him he jumped out of the second story window and started for the river, which he reached and crossed on the logs, and has not been seen since. If he never comes back the city will be rid of a troublesome character to the police.

Rube Allyn, the celebrated humorist and impersonator, will visit this city Tuesday evening, May 7th, under the auspices of the Senior Class of our High School. The class takes this means of securing the necessary funds for graduation. The high class of the entertainment alone should warrant a large attendance, but since it comes under the auspices of the class the house should be crowded to the doors, as it undoubtedly will be. Mr. Allyn needs no introduction to the public, as he is recognized as the peer of humorists and the most skillful impersonators. In the afternoon, in order to give all the children a chance to hear him, a matinee will be given, to which the small admission of 10 cents will be charged. Admission to the evening entertainment will be 35 cents, and tickets to be exchanged for coupon tickets at McFadden's drug store.

The first shot enjoyed by the Brainerd Gun Club occurred on Wednesday forenoon at the new grounds at the end of the street car line. The club has been thoroughly reorganized and during the coming summer will be active in their operations. The new location is a very desirable one in many respects. The traps will be worked with electricity, which will be transmitted from the electric plant of the street car line, and the entire arrangement will be superior to that of any other club in the Northwest. A meeting will be held this (Friday) evening, at which time the entire details of the summer's shoot will be arranged. It is also expected that a tournament will be held the latter part of June. The membership of the Club at the present time is as follows: 1. U. White, F. S. Parker, Dr. S. M. Kirkwood, A. F. Ferris, Geo. D. La Bar, L. W. Chase, John T. Frater, W. J. Bain, Dr. J. L. Camp, J. R. Westfall, G. M. Walker, A. E. Veon, Dr. W. Courtney, Louis Tache, M. K. Swartz, J. H. Smith, S. H. Parker, G. S. McLean, Dan. McIntosh, N. C. McFadden, W. S. McClellan, Jas. McCabe, W. H. Mantor, J. H. Koop, A. L. Hoffman, G. A. Keene, J. M. Hayes, N. H. Ingersoll, J. T. Frater, Dr. A. P. Groves, J. J. Ford, J. F. Glesner, W. P. Buckley and John Bubar.

Dr. C. E. Lum and wife arrived in Wadena Tuesday evening, after their long absence in the east and in Europe. During this time they have visited many of the leading cities in England and on the continent, and had a delightful trip for the most part. The Doctor studied at Berlin, Vienna and London, under celebrated specialists. They will remain in Wadena a short time, and it is Dr. Lum's intention to settle in Duluth.—Wadena Journal.

Speaking of the situation among the mills at Minneapolis, the Journal, of that city says: The government reservoir at Pokegama does not contain nearly as much water as is needed, although there is a considerable supply there. The reservoir is being tapped today on an experiment in the effect on log driving, but it will be 10 days before the flush, what there is of it, will reach Minneapolis. Even with copious showers, the prospect are rather poor for any saving in Minneapolis before June 1.

Opera House, May 10th.
W. A. Mahara's Mammoth Colored Operatic Minstrels appeared at the Tremont yesterday, opening with a matinee and giving a farewell performance at night. This is a troupe of colored performers, and they gave a very original and interesting entertainment, and adhere more closely to the old-time style of minstrelsy, with pure and unadulterated negro originalities, than any other company appearing here this season. Their songs and jokes and specially featured are all good.—Grand Forks, (N. D.) News.

Found His Body in a Lake.
The body of Jacob Hamerle, a lumberman, was found in Wabedah lake on Tuesday by Frank Raynor, a cook in a lumber camp at that place. Hamerle disappeared from the camp early in November last, but as lumbermen come and go from the camps without warning, nothing was thought of his disappearance. Mr. Raynor went to the lake on Tuesday to dip up some water and discovered the body in a few feet of water. It is not known whether the case was one of suicide or accidental death. The remains were buried near the lake without an inquest, as nothing was found on his person which would indicate where his home or relatives were.

The Arlington Hotel Fire.
The Arlington hotel was the scene of quite a blaze on Wednesday morning, the alarm being given at 7 o'clock. The fire department was promptly on hand and saved the building from destruction, but not until somewhere in the neighborhood of $400 damage had been done, the water causing as much destruction as the fire. The origin of the blaze is a mystery as it started in a room on the third floor which was occupied by two of the dining room girls who had left the room at six o'clock, and at that time there was no signs of any fire which an hour later caused such a commotion. The fire seems to have started between the plastering and floor and burned up through the floor igniting the bedding and destroying everything in the room including the entire outfit of clothing belonging to the occupants of the room, the latter being a serious loss to the young ladies, amounting to $200.

Opening of the Kindergarten.
Miss Lucy Stearns will open a kindergarten school at the Guild rooms on Monday morning, May 6th, and will be assisted in the work by Mrs. J. C. Atherton. Miss Stearns has just returned from Minneapolis where she has been fitting herself for the work for some months past and has undergone a thorough training in all the branches, having also the advantage of practice as she was actively engaged in teaching while there. The age of pupils who will be received at the kindergarten to be opened next Monday will be from 3 to 7 years and the tuition fee will be $1.00 per week, except where there are two pupils from the same family in which case the price will be 75 cents. The hours will be from 9 to 12 o'clock each day except Saturdays and in cases where the children live too far from the school a conveyance will be furnished.

Our Gun Club.
The first shot enjoyed by the Brainerd Gun Club occurred on Wednesday forenoon at the new grounds at the end of the street car line. The club has been thoroughly reorganized and during the coming summer will be active in their operations. The new location is a very desirable one in many respects. The traps will be worked with electricity, which will be transmitted from the electric plant of the street car line, and the entire arrangement will be superior to that of any other club in the Northwest. Grass Seed for Farmers.
The grass seed to be furnished by the state will be ready for delivery to the applicants the first of next week, probably as early as Monday. The commissioners let the contract to M. Hagberg, and will be disbursed from his store on Sixth street on orders issued to the proper parties by Auditor Tache. Farmers are notified to bring sacks, for in case sacks have to be furnished the parties will have to pay for the same. There are 222 applicants to whom seed has been granted, 98 in Cass, and 124 in Crow Wing county. What seemed to be a calamity, and what was really so, will eventually be a benefit to those who lost only their hay land, for the proper use of the seed furnished by the state will bring forth a quality of tame hay next year which will be superior to any wild grass originally grown on these meadows.

Give Him a Chair.
John Bubar was agreeably surprised on Tuesday evening of this week by a party of friends at the Lumberman's Exchange Hotel, it being his last day as proprietor of the same. The committee, consisting of J. P. Sanders and D. F. McIntosh, presented Mr. Bubar with a very fine easy rocking chair as a token of remembrance, a testimonial accompanying it as follows:
To JOHN BUBAR, Esq.:
In recognition of your genial company, pleasant manners, good fellowship and past favors, please accept this slight token as a remembrance from your friends: J. P. Sanders, Dan. McIntosh, Ohas. Kinkala, James Dewar, John Carlson, Fred Ellison, G. F. McLean, A. L. Robbins, Wm. Copeland, F. Miller, F. Wilkins, J. Kelleher, F. Stropp, A. Rheinthal, E. J. Morrison, J. Buley, Pat Connors, Ed. Meeting of the Board of Trade.
On Friday evening last a special meeting of the Board of Trade was held at the city hall, the attendance being unusually large. Considerable business was transacted, among which was the revising of the by-laws, and a committee was appointed, consisting of W. S. McClellan and President Parker, to attend to having them printed in pamphlet form.

The most important business of the evening was the consideration of the passenger train service which is accorded Brainerd at present, and a committee, consisting of Hon. A. F. Ferris, Hon. H. C. Stivers and Judge G. W. Holland, were appointed to confer with the company, and endeavor to secure the running of passenger trains No. 7 and 8 this way, instead of over the cut-off.
Other committees appointed were:
To examine the books and accounts of the board—Geo. D. LaBar and W. D. McKay.
On manufactures and commerce—Leon E. Lum, J. W. Koop, M. Hagberg, J. N. Novera and A. P. Farrar.
Several communications were read, after which the board adjourned.

The Brainerd Co-operative Building and Loan Association held their annual meeting on Monday evening, and the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Louis Henkel, aged 50 years, died on Sunday at his home on Broke street, of appendicitis. The funeral occurred on Tuesday from the Catholic church, Rev. Fr. Lynch officiating.
Our City Booms.
Chas. T. Schmid returned Saturday afternoon from Brainerd, where he sold a couple of cars of cattle. He reports Brainerd as enjoying a lively season. The big saw mill starts up today, (Wednesday) the logs being brought in by railroad.—St. Cloud Journal-Press.

Memorial Day.
Headquarters Pap. Thomas Post No. 30, G. A. R.
Comrades of the G. A. R., ladies and all honorably discharged Union soldiers and sailors who served in the late war, are requested to take part with the Post on Memorial Day, May 30, 1895. Twenty-seven years ago the beautiful and impressive custom of strewing flowers on the last resting place of the fallen comrades was first publicly observed, and each year since has witnessed a more general observance of the day. Memorial Day is now indeed a time when the grateful people of a great nation vie with each other in honoring the memory of its soldier and sailor dead, who died that the nation might live, showing to the survivors of the great struggle that our republic is grateful and does honor to the men who dared death in its defense, and whose deeds shall be told in song and story to the rising generation, that they, too, may learn to love our country and its flag, learn that we have the best and most liberal form of government on the face of the earth to-day, learn that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, learn that the constitution guarantees to all its citizens free speech, free thought, political and religious, learn that the safety of the nation lies in having every citizen protect in his rights, learn that education and patriotism go hand in hand, that we are one nation, and that our motto is "One Country and One Flag," and that flag "Old Glory," the stars and stripes, the flag which on this Memorial Day waves over every Union soldier's and sailor's grave in this broad land.

Now, comrades, let us all enter earnestly into this patriotic work. Fall in with our Post with all its efforts to observe the day with flowers and tears for the dead, and cheers and smiles for the living, for since last Memorial Day a full division of the G. A. R. has been mustered out by death. Let us close up our ranks and stand shoulder to shoulder as we journey down the western slope of time. A detail will be made from the Post in due time to co-operate with the schools, civic and other societies and patriotic citizens.
